

Weekend Courses by Lyn Bedford-White

We are going to run two art weekends in 2010. This will be an opportunity to relax and enjoy beautiful scenery, mouth watering food, excellent tuition, and a peaceful atmosphere. We have chosen Nash Manor, which is situated just below the South Downs and is approximately 2 miles north of Steyning, for the venue.

The first will be in May and will be a pen and wash weekend and the second will be in September and will be Watercolour landscape.

Weekend 1 Pen & Watercolour Wash 22nd & 23rd May 2010

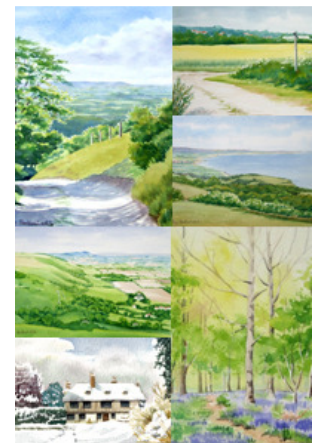

Pen & wash has an endearing simplicity, which lends itself to buildings, doorways, arches, boats and all manner of subjects. During this weekend we will be looking at the techniques needed for successful pen & wash painting, from the various pen strokes through to the watercolour washes. We will be using local material as our source with a visit to a local picturesque building to carry out preliminary sketches. I will also take photographs of the subject which can be used as further reference material. From your sketches and the photos we will then produce the pen and Watercolour wash pictures with step by step demonstrations and tuition. Not to worry if you feel your drawing skills aren't up to this, I have a few helpful techniques to overcome any drawing problems.

Saturday from 10.00am to 4.30pm
Sunday from 10.00am to 4.00pm

Weekend 2 Sussex Downs & Landscape in Watercolour 4th & 5th September 2010

This weekend will include painting the unique landscape of the South Downs with a trip to a local beauty spot (weather permitting) to sketch. We will then use the sketches together with photographic material to paint our landscapes in the peace and comfort of Nash Manor. For those students new painting I will explain and demonstrate each step of the painting process, together with how to mix colour and the various washes and techniques needed for watercolour painting. There will also be special attention paid to painting trees and mixing greens on this weekend.

Saturday from 10.00am to 4.30pm
Sunday from 10.00am to 4.00pm
